

Summer Music Camp 2019

Kathy Follet and Barbara Wilcox, Co-Directors and Conductors

Supported by the Newport Symphony Orchestra

- Where: First Presbyterian Church, 227 NE 12th Street, Newport, OR
- When: July 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 2019 Time: 9:00am to 2:00pm daily
- What: The annual Summer Music Camp for Oregon coast youth will feature chamber ensemble coaching, large group rehearsals, fun rhythm & theory sessions, music composition, sight-reading exercises and guest speaker. The week will conclude with a concert for the community, which will include a piece composed by the students.
- Who: Youth musicians ages 9-18 years old who are at a beginning or intermediate level in a string, wind, brass, or percussion instrument. In addition, up to 2 piano students may participate.
- Why: To give youth living on the Oregon coast the opportunity to play orchestral music with one another, enhance appreciation of music, improve personal music skills, enjoy camaraderie, have fun, and create excitement for playing music.
- Cost: The fee for the five-day camp is $135. Students should plan to bring their instruments and a sack lunch and dress comfortably. A morning snack will be provided. (Partial campships are available by contacting the NSO office 541-574-0614) APPLICATIONS DUE TO NSO OFFICE BY JUNE 15th.

The camp will conclude with a public concert on July 6th at 2pm.
